

USATF 2014 ANNUAL MEETING REPORT

Linda Melzer, Secretary --- Delegate

Anaheim, California

Tuesday, Dec 2nd – 10:00am

Organizational Services

Accreditation -- Voting rights suspended for Alaska, Wyoming & Iowa

Site Selection – 2015 Houston, Hyatt – 2016 Orlando, Hilton

2017 & 2018 --- Columbus, Ohio

Credentials – As of 12/02/14 --- 27 Associations were not in compliance

Elections --- No National elections this year – Officials, Youth and AAC

Wednesday, Dec 3rd – 9:00am

Officials Committee

IAAF World Committee, sent a letter to USATF Officials Committee praising them for the excellent job they did officiating the IAAF World Youth Meet.

There are 7600 Certified Officials --- It's going to be very interesting when the National Office tries to distribute only 4000 FREE shirts.

USOC Training program is on-line --- due in 2015 for all Officials.

Finalists for all our major awards were announced.

Grants of $500.00 stipends will be awarded for up to 10 newly certified Officials. The money is to help defray the cost of attending a major meet.

7300 officials subscribe to our National Newsletter but only – 45% are opened.

Thursday, Dec 4th

Organizational Services

Three hours spent – counting delegate badges and coloring seating chart.

Committee members are to meet Friday morning to start checking in delegates.

Sent to Youth Committee to help with election of Zonal Reps.

Officials Committee – 102 Proposed Rule Amendments

14 – Tabled 16 – Rejected 15 – Withdrawn

Val Foss, appointed Chair of Nominating Committee for 2016

NCAA --- 15 time limit for protests is now in effect.

Friday, Dec 5th

Organizational Services --- distributed delegate badges