

Ohio T&F Grand Prix Heat up After Three Meets

The competition to accumulate points in the Ohio Track & Field Grand Prix has intensified with three of the six Series meets completed. The Columbus Track & Field Classic, was the first meet of the Series followed by the New World Summer Classic then the Ohio Association Jr. Olympics on June 17-18.

The Ohio Association Track & Field Grand Prix is a series of meets for Youth, Senior/Open and Masters athletes who are Ohio Association members. Each athlete scores points based on place in each event he or she competes in at Grand Prix meets. Points are totaled each meet and the top three point scorers in four age brackets (12 & Under, 13-18, Senior/Open and Masters), male and female, win Grand Prix awards and are recognized at the Ohio Association's fall meeting.
